

Brian Greenberg
Managing Director
and CEO
Greenberg Advisors LLC

Brian Greenberg is one of the most experienced and active advisors to the Accounts Receivable Management (ARM) industry worldwide. For nearly 15 years, he has specialized in advising ARM executives and investors regarding mergers and acquisitions (M&A), raising capital, and business valuation.

Mr. Greenberg began his M&A career with Weaver Partners, where he focused on cross-border transactions for clients worldwide. He has gone on to lead the ARM M&A practices at Kaulkin Ginsberg (1996 to 2006) and at Milestone Advisors (2006 to 2009), and in 2009, founded his own firm, Greenberg Advisors, which combines M&A and strategic advisory services with operational consulting.

Mr. Greenberg received a B.B.A. from George Washington University, specializing in International Business and Marketing, and served four years in the United States Air Force as a German Linguist.
