

Carol Freeland

Carol Freeland is Founder and President of ACTS+, a consulting firm specializing in administrative, compliance and training issues in the credit, debt and collection industry. Ms. Freeland was a Partner and EVP of PRM Financial Services located in Addison, Texas from 1992 until June 2008.

Originally from Ohio, Carol now resides in Arkansas. She received her bachelor of science degree from Miami University in Ohio and her Masters degree in public administration from Nova University in Florida. Prior work was in the educational arena, in the field of due diligence for brokers in the securities industry and as an Arbitrator for the NASD.

Carol is serving her last year on the Asset Buyers Division committee and is its Chair.

*Found and President
ACTS+*