

Juan Montealegre

Juan has over 12 years in the ARM (Account Receivables Management) industry, in such roles as collection management, compliance management and policy setting. Juan is originally from Nicaragua, and has lived and schooled in both Nicaragua and the United States. Juan's ARM roots began as owner of one of the first Commercial Collection agencies in Nicaragua prior to joining Bonded Collection Corporation, a leader in the area of commercial and consumer collections located in Chicago, IL in the early 2000s as Compliance Manager and later as Business Development Director.

Currently, Juan makes his home in Chicago, where CI's Corporate headcounters are located. Juan Travel to Nicaragua at least 2 times a month or as needed to ensure all facets of the Nicaraguan operation are in place and operating to our client's expectations. Juan oversees the integration of all new clients through production.

Juan is also chartered with any governmental negotiations and local vendor relations. Juan is intimately familiar with the local culture, customs and government and uses this knowledge to ensure that CI operations are running with maximum effectiveness.
